

I am opposed to the broadcast ownership percentage being raised. Consolidation of the media to a few (corporate) sources is dangerous for our (or any) democracy. The more voices, the superior and more complete the coverage, therefore the closer to the truth so that we, the citizens, can be well informed to make better decisions on the running of our (great) country.